

FY2013 General Budget Talking Points (CC Version)

Overview

- The new revenue in the budget was allocated in the following manner:
 - $575 million or 55% went to cover population growth and shortfalls in Medicaid, K-12 Education, Regents, and TCSG, among other areas.
 - $231 million or 22% went to cover increases in state employee and teacher health benefits, retirement obligations, unemployment insurance, liability insurance and other administrative items.
 - $112 million or 11% went to future economic development projects and deal-closing funds in OneGeorgia and Regional Economic Business Assistance (REBA).
 - $54 million or 5% went to dedicated fund source expenditures such as motor fuel and lottery.
 - $74 million or 7% went to fund non-growth additions, including increasing medical residencies, opening an Atlanta YDC, converting Pre-Release Centers (PRCs) to Residential Substance Abuse Centers, funding 50 new Independent Care Waiver Program (ICWP) slots, and funding new bonds.
- Revenue Shortfall Reserve: Contains a balance of $328 million currently, which is the equivalent of seven to eight days of state operations. Approximately $170 million of this amount will be used in the FY13 Amended for K-12 enrollment growth.
- 2011 Population by State Service Area (percentage in parentheses reflects change since 2008):
 - K-12 full-time equivalents (FTEs): 1.65 million (+1%)
 - Regents FTEs: 276,109 (+17%)
 - Technical School FTEs: 107,629 (+46%)
 - Medicaid and PeachCare enrollees: 1,696,839 (+12%)
 - Inmates and probationers: 215,756 (+4%)
- Pensions:
 - Teachers Retirement System (TRS): 85.7% funded with $54.2 billion in assets
 - Employees' Retirement System (ERS): 80.1% with $15.5 billion in assets
 - In 2010 Georgia's pension system was considered a "solid performer" by the Pew Center for the States.
- Bond Rating: Triple AAA (highest rating available)
 - Georgia is one of eight states with the highest rating and currently has a higher general obligation bond rating than the U.S. Government.
 - The bond rating agencies cite the following as key to Georgia's high rating: (1) conservative fiscal management practices, (2) rapid RSR building after recessions, (3) economy well-positioned to recover in medium term, and (4) well-funded pensions.

Legislative Branch

- Removed the Senate addition of $100,000 in the Department of Audits for legislative fiscal notes, instead making additions to the Office of Planning and Budget for this purpose (#11.3, 164.9).
