

After the election, policy work takes center stage...we're ready.

Insights 2025: A Roadmap for Progress | January 28, 2025
9AM | Atlanta, Georgia

At Insights 2025, GBPI will provide its annual deep dive into both the amended current year state budget and the new fiscal year state budgets. This year it's right at the beginning of the two-year Georgia legislative cycle. We will map the road ahead using the most up-to-date analysis on just-released state budget proposals and an in-depth look at the policies impacting everyday Georgians.

Now is the time for all of us to dream bigger, work smarter and push harder to advance economic opportunities for all Georgians.

Now is the time for you to begin or accelerate your advocacy journey.

Georgia is at a crossroads with $17 billion in surplus. This surplus can be used to fund generational investments like a childcare trust fund as well as everyday programs and services, like education and health care, that build our future and keep us thriving.

In addition to our budget overviews, this year we will also publicly launch our new economic security campaign with a focus on strengthening the safety net, creating quality jobs and removing barriers to economic security.

This will be GBPI's 19th annual policy conference as we wrap up our 20th anniversary year. In 2025 and every year, Insights attracts hundreds of attendees, like you, who are gifted, brave and passionate about Georgia policy issues. Together, we can chart the course for a more equitable Georgia.

If you have questions about the conference or the benefits of being a sponsor, please reach out to GBPI's VP of Finance and Operations, Jessica Woods at JWoods@gbpi.org.
